

TAYLOR &amp; HUFTY

Wish to inform their lady customers that they are receiving small lots of every day. They receive small lots because the importers find it impossible to fill the demand. New Styles are coming in, and better qualities for the price.

JERSEYS

They also desire to call attention to their stock of

that have been marked down below cost. Those displayed for 50 and 75c will compare favorably with anything offered elsewhere for 80c and $1. Well made and of good material, they have grown gray from shop wear, and only need laundering to whiten them perfectly; but we sell them below cost.

Our Job Lot of Hosiery

is running low, but there are a few bargains remaining.

CHILDREN'S HOSE reduced 25 per cent., and Ladies' quite as much.

A FEW SUITS left we will sell at cost. All this season's goods, and stylish in cut.

THE BREVITY BASKET.

Filled With Brief Mention of Many Minor Events of Yesterday.

Officer White found a dead colored infant on Woodley road, in the country.

John Speedon has been arrested by Police-man St. Lewis for stealing a horse, buggy, and harness from John West in October last, and committed to await a hearing next week.

Yesterday morning a boy by the name of McCracken was violently thrown from a spirited horse at the corner of Eleventh and K streets. He was quite seriously hurt and the horse severely cut on the hip.

The base ball game between the one-armed and one-legged nines, which was to have been played yesterday afternoon at Athletic park, but which was postponed on account of the rain, will take place to-morrow afternoon.

Early yesterday morning the residence of P. Cullinane, 806 Sixth street southwest, was entered by thieves climbing in the back window. They had packed up a lot of clothing and other articles, when they were frightened off.

On the tenth instant W. Brooks was arrested as an insane man and he was examined by the physicians who declined to certify to his insanity and he was sent to the poorhouse. He has since shown signs of insanity and was sent to the asylum yesterday.

A Prince George county farmer named William Evans, who was in this city last evening, stated that during the prevalence of a severe thunder storm in his section yesterday a number of trees were struck by lightning and several domestic animals killed.

A new paper to be known as the First Call is about to be started by Mr. Richard Dietrich, secretary of the Soldiers' Temperance union. It will be devoted to the interests of the soldier and temperance. Mr. Dietrich is now in the city from his camp at Gaithersburg getting ready for the first issue of the paper.

Last night about 8 o'clock a half grown boy was followed by a large crowd of men and boys screaming "Stop thief!" The supposed rogue was followed by an unknown gentleman and a reporter of THE REPUBLICAN. The youngster said he had not stole, neither had he murdered any one—not even woke up a policeman. He was therefore released by his tender hearted captors.

Mr. William Webster met with a terrible accident while riding on horseback at First and F streets yesterday. In turning the corner the horse tripped and fell heavily upon his rider, breaking two of the gentleman's ribs, crushing his hip and dislocating his knee-cap. The police ambulance arrived promptly, and the wounded man was conveyed to Providence hospital.

On Wednesday as Chas. A. Krause, residing at 1223 New York Avenue, was entering street car No. 31, Metropolitan railway, on Connecticut Avenue, between M and N streets, he was struck and felled to the ground by an unknown colored man who escaped. Krause was severely cut on the head, and his wound was dressed at Hanson's drug store, corner of L and Connecticut Avenue.

Yesterday forenoon a fire took place on E street, between Seventeenth and Eighteenth northwest, which destroyed three frame buildings, owned and occupied by Thomas, Eliza, and George Bryant, colored, and their families. Another frame building on the opposite side of the street, occupied by Mrs. Pleasant Gaily, took fire, but the flames were speedily extinguished. The total damage was about $500. No insurance.

PAINTERS' placards, "Look Out for Paint!" are given away gratis at THE REPUBLICAN business office to every painter on personal application.

UNRECEIVED LETTERS.

What Postmaster Conger Says—The Corcoran Street Branch Office.

Postmaster Conger said yesterday, in speaking of letters that failed to reach the persons addressed, that if proprietors of hotels and boarding house keepers who have received letters addressed to persons who have been stopping with them but who are out of the city will return them to the city postmaster by the regular carriers after holding them a week or two they will confer a favor upon the city postmaster, as well as the persons to whom the letters are addressed. They will be forwarded to their proper destination.

George A. Bentley, appointed postmaster of the branch postoffice recently established at the corner of Fourteenth and Corcoran streets northwest, filed his bond yesterday. This branch office will be largely patronized, and will meet a want long felt in the northwestern section of the city.

EDEY'S Catholic Troches cure colds and prevent disease.

Police Court Notes.

A boy named Harry Newman was fined $10 or sixty days for smearing paint on the fence of Mr. John Cassell.

Alexander Bell was fined $5 for assaulting William Thornton.

William Green, whose arrest for robbing a man named Cotton of $117 and a watch and chain in July, 1882, has already been published in THE REPUBLICAN, had his case set to the grand jury under $500 bonds. William Jackson, who was also charged with the robbery, was used as a witness, and his case was nolle prossed. He was put under bonds to appear as a witness before the grand jury.

James Downs was fined $10 for keeping a dangerous and ferocious dog, which had attacked an old colored man named Thomas Clinkett.

John Sandford was fined $5 for breaking a window.

The Hancy perjury case was called up and continued for two weeks.

Frank Schulte was charged with having embezzled $40 from Col. Snelbaker, and the case was continued to allow the summoning of witnesses.

Patrick Morgan was fined $10 for indecent exposure.

Joseph Sater, a German, who is temporarily crippled by an accident, was charged with violating the license laws by peddling towels and handkerchiefs in South Washington without a license, and he was fined $5 in addition to the license tax of $50. The sentence was suspended to allow the man to apply to the commissioners for clemency.

An enricher of the blood and purifier of the system; cures lassitude and lack of energy; such is Brown's Iron Bitters.

Wannell-Downey.

Mr. William Wannell and Miss Mary Downey were united in marriage yesterday morning at 11 o'clock by Rev. Father Thomas, of St. Patrick's church, at the home of the bride, on Fourth street northwest near I street. After receiving the congratulations of their numerous friends a sumptuous wedding breakfast was served. The groom is a member of the metropolitan fire department, stationed with truck A, on North Capitol street, and the bride is a young lady of many womanly qualities and marked personal attractions.

Wells "Rough On Corns." 15c. Quick, complete, permanent cure. Corns, warts, bunions.

EAST WASHINGTON. A force of men were put to work yesterday trimming the catalpa trees in the parking along Pennsylvania Avenue southeast.

The residents of southeast Washington complain of the bitterness of the dusty weather part of the city. Passing vehicles raise suffocating clouds of dust which enters their houses, rendering tidiness almost impossible.

A large force of laborers was yesterday engaged in clearing the grass out of the gut on Massachusetts Avenue, between Second and Fourth streets northeast.

Several fine specimens of rock fish have been caught lately off the navy yard bridge by anglers.

At nine, between Second and Third southeast, is being improved by grading.

The lot on M street, between Third and Fourth streets southeast, is covered with poisonous weeds five or six feet high. Complaint has been made by residents that the garbage collector has not visited the neighborhood of Fourth and M streets southeast this season.
